

June 2021 Sunday Services at 10:30 am

The church is open for Sunday services. These services will also be recorded and available each week on the website: nantcoch.org.uk, usually after about 4pm. (See page 3 for what to expect in church and page 4 for rotas.)

	Topic	Speaker	Service co-ordinator
6 th June	Daniel 7 – Human power - what hope?	Jim Probert	Edmund Plummer
13 th June	Daniel 8 – Is there hope?	Arfon Jones	John Schneider
20 th June 	Daniel 9 – Serious and honest prayer	Steve Loader	Richard Young
27 th June	Daniel 10 – Victorious faith in a suffering world	Sam Young	Graham Sims

Please go to the website at any time to see the services, and to access content for the children and young people.

C A note about communion – If you are watching the service online and would like to take part in the communion, you can prepare for the service by having some bread and an appropriate drink ready. We can still remember the Lord's death and follow His instructions to 'do this in remembrance of Me'; we can still take part in communion together, in our different households, in a reverent and prayerful way.

❖ Special collection

This month, the special collection is for Health Help International – see next page, and/or speak to Edmund, who is chair of the trustees of HHI.

May 2021 Sunday Services at 10:30 am

The church is open for Sunday services. These services will also be recorded and available each week on the website: nantcoch.org.uk, usually after about 4pm. (See page 3 for what to expect in church and page 4 for rotas.)

	Topic	Speaker	Service co-ordinator
2 nd May	Daniel 3 – Where do your loyalties lie?	Edmund Plummer	Graham Sims
9 th May 	Daniel 4 – God humbles the proud	Gerry Angel	Edmund Plummer
16 th May	Daniel 5 – God's judgement	Pete Hodge	Wesley Harris
23 rd May 	All age service for Pentecost	Tony Bugeja	Richard and Stephanie Young
30 th May	Daniel 6 – Weakness and Power	Martin Young	John Schneider

Please go to the website at any time to see the services, and to access content for the children and young people.

C A note about communion – If you are watching the service online and would like to take part in the communion, you can prepare for the service by having some bread and an appropriate drink ready. We can still remember the Lord's death and follow His instructions to 'do this in remembrance of Me'; we can still take part in communion together, in our different households, in a reverent and prayerful way.

❖ Special collection

This month, the special collection is for Scripture Union – see next page

April 2021 Sunday Services at 10:30 am

The church is now open again for Sunday services. These services will also be recorded and available each week on the website: nantcoch.org.uk, usually after about 4pm. (See page 3 for what to expect in church and page 4 for rotas.)

	Topic	Speaker	Service co-ordinator
2 nd April	Good Friday		Wesley Harris
4 th April	Easter Day All Age Worship		Graham Sims
11 th April	New series: Daniel Introduction and Overview of the book of Daniel	Jack Freeman	Edmund Plummer
18 th April	Daniel 1 – Where do we draw the line?	Wayne O’Leary	Richard Young
25 th April  HOLY COMMUNION C	Daniel 2 – A dream and a threat to life	Peter Brind	John Schneider

Please go to the website at any time to see the services, and to access content for the children and young people.

C A note about communion – If you are watching the service online and would like to take part in the communion, you can prepare for the service by having some bread and an appropriate drink ready. We can still remember the Lord’s death and follow His instructions to ‘do this in remembrance of Me’; we can still take part in communion together, in our different households, in a reverent and prayerful way.

❖ Special collection

This month, the special collection is for Open Doors – see next page

March 2021 Sunday Services at 10:30 am

The church will re-open for worship services this month. These services will also be recorded and available each week on the website: nantcoch.org.uk, usually after about 4pm. (See page 3 for what to expect in church and page 4 for rotas.)

	Topic	Speaker	Service co-ordinator
7th March ❖	Prophecies of the passion: Jesus was forsaken, pierced, vindicated (Psalm 22)	Phil Gibson	Graham Sims
14th March	Mothering Sunday All Age Worship		Graham Sims
21st March 	Prophecies of the passion; Jesus was given vinegar/not a bone was broken (John 19:28-29,36 and Psalm 69:19-21)	Mark Lonney	Edmund Plummer
28th March	Prophecies of the passion; Jesus resurrected and glorified (Psalm 16:9-11, Isaiah 52:11-12, Isaiah 52:13)	Peter Milsom	John Schneider

Please go to the website at any time to see the services, and to access content for the children and young people.

C A note about communion – If you are watching the service online and would like to take part in the communion, you can prepare for the service by having some bread and an appropriate drink ready. We can still remember the Lord's death and follow His instructions to 'do this in remembrance of Me'; we can still take part in communion together, in our different households, in a reverent and prayerful way.

❖ Special collection

This month, the special collection is for Tearfund – see next page

February 2021 Sunday Services at 10:30 am

These services will be available each week on the website: nantcoch.org.uk

	Topic	Speaker	Service co-ordinator
7th February ❖	‘But one more powerful than I will come. He will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire’ (Luke 3:16)	Steve Owens	Edmund Plummer
14th February 	‘I will come back’ (John 14:3)	John Wilkes	Graham Sims
21st February	Prophecies of the passion; the suffering servant (Isaiah 52:13-53:10)	Doug Reed	Richard Young
28th February	Prophecies of the passion; Jesus was God’s Passover lamb (John 1:35, Exodus 12:1-12)	Jonathan Harris	John Schneider

Please go to the website at any time to see the services, and to access content for the children and young people.

C A note about communion – If you are watching the service online and would like to take part in the communion, you can prepare for the service by having some bread and an appropriate drink ready. We can still remember the Lord’s death and follow His instructions to ‘do this in remembrance of Me’; we can still take part in communion together, in our different households, in a reverent and prayerful way.

❖ Special collection

This month, the special collection is for Investors in People (IIP)

Our church members are our most valuable asset – the development of their faith and spiritual gifts is of great importance. The “Investors in People” fund exists to provide financial support to those who wish to undertake a period of study, training or Christian service, either at home or abroad.

January 2021 Sunday Services at 10:30 am

These services will be available each week on the website: nantcoch.org.uk

Stewards' rota will only apply if the church building is reopened

	Topic	Speaker	Service co-ordinator	External Steward	Internal Steward
3 rd January ❖	Why Jesus came - to seek and save what was lost (Luke 19:10)	John Schneider	Wesley Harris	Not applicable
10 th January 	Why Jesus came - not to call the righteous but sinners to repentance (Luke 5:32)	Gervais Angel	Edmund Plummer
17 th January	Why Jesus came - to do the Father's will (Hebrews 10:7)	Roger Newberry	Graham Sims
24 th January	Why Jesus came – 'that they may have life, and have it to the full' (John 10:8)	Andy Gibbs	Richard Young	Adrian Norton	Jan Norton
31 st January 	All age service	To be confirmed	To be confirmed	Gerald Thomas	Gill Thomas

Please go to the website at any time to see the services, and to access content for the children and young people.

C A note about communion – If you are watching the service online and would like to take part in the communion, you can prepare for the service by having some bread and an appropriate drink ready. We can still remember the Lord's death and follow His instructions to 'do this in remembrance of Me'; we can still take part in communion together, in our different households, in a reverent and prayerful way.

❖ Special collection – this month, for Heart of a Child, see next page for details

As there is a fifth Sunday this month, the collection on 31st January will be for the building and maintenance fund.