In the city of Antioch many people became followers of Jesus. One day it was decided that all the new Christians needed a good teacher and helper. Barnabas was chosen for this job.

Paul – he used to be called Saul. He received news from Barnabas saying he needed help to teach the new Christians how they should live and someone who could answer their questions. Both men worked hard in the city of Antioch spreading the Good News about Jesus. They taught them how to pray and to be kind to others.
