❖ includes a special collection for the Mongolian Eye Clinic.

Working with local Doctor, Narankhand (or Naraa for short) Richard Young helped with the setting up of the clinic in 2001, and it continues to provide affordable eye care for the people of Ulaanbaatar, the capital of Mongolia. Dr. Naraa runs the clinic and also helps with the training of more eye care specialists in Mongolia. Supporting the clinic will help more Mongolians to access quality eye care, and also support the work of churches in the Mongolian countryside. Dr. Naraa often arranges trips to the countryside, where medical support of any kind is at best basic. She bases this type of outreach in local churches, providing free eye tests and heavily discounted glasses to anyone who needs them. In this way she helps with people's physical needs and introduces them to the church.

❖ includes a special collection for Health Help International (HHI).

HHI is a local charity which works in Zambia and south India. In India, HHI finances medical help, a home for destitute women, two centres for disabled children, and a number of tuition groups which supplement state education, which is often inadequate. In Zambia HHI has recently built a very successful school for a community that had none; it also provides medical help for people who cannot afford it and the cost of education for disabled children and young adults.

❖ includes a special collection for the Bible Society. They want the Bible's God-given revelation, inspiration and wisdom to shape the lives and communities of people everywhere. They do this by translating the Bible, providing Bibles for the deaf, blind and those who don't read. They also demonstrate the Bible's relevance in society and equip churches to better engage with the Bible.

Through salvation our past has been forgiven, our present is given meaning, and our future is secured. Rick Warren
